

REST IN HIS PROMISE

DAVID RUIS

When the sun's brightly shining
And it's touching my face
And Your favor is resting
And it seems all is grace

I will lift up my eyes
And give glory to Your name
And I'll rest in Your promise over me

When the sunlight has faded
And the darkness' my friend
And the sorrows are rolling
And the suffering just won't end

When the wars and the rumors
Are encircling the earth
And Your judgements are falling
And there's nowhere to turn

You are sovereign, Lord
You are holy, Lord
You are faithful, Lord

When the heavens are opened
And You ride like the wind
And Your kingdom of justice
It will come without end
