And tonight, God to encounter you... and wants you to feel His love... His amazing love... Without it, are just songs, these are just words, these are just instruments... Without the love of (it's) it's just like... we're just like up here, making noise. But the love of God us! And we're never the same. We're never the same after we encounter the love of God. never the same after we encounter the love of God! And right now, if you haven't the love of God. And You would know... because you wouldn't be the same. would never the same again! And if you... if you wanna encounter the love of God right you better just brace yourself! Because he's about to just blow in this place! And gonna encounter the love of God, right now! So God, I speak to all the hearts. And I God that every heart be open right now. Every heart be open!
