

Quiz name: Concise History of Western Music, 4e
Chapter Number: 16

Question: What set of Haydn's quartets are noteworthy in that they exemplify a new approach to the quartet, treating it as a genre for performance in concerts?

Correct answer is: d) Op. 76

Question: Haydn wrote approximately:

Correct answer is: c) 104 symphonies

Question: Mozart's admiration for Haydn is evident in what set of string quartets, dedicated to Haydn?

Correct answer is: c) Op. 10

Question: Haydn's orchestra at Esterháza had no more than:

Correct answer is: c) 25 players

Question: Haydn has been called "the father of the symphony" because he:

Correct answer is: c) established the pattern for later composers

Question: The typical Haydn symphony has:

Correct answer is: b) four movements

Question: A sudden fortissimo crash on a weak beat in the slow movement earned what symphony the nickname Surprise?

Correct answer is: a) No. 94

Question: The final movement of a Haydn symphony often uses what form?

Correct answer is: c) sonata

Question: Haydn's last completed works were:

Correct answer is: b) masses

Question: Haydn likely composed his earliest symphonies while:

Correct answer is: a) serving as the music director for Count Morzin

Question: Mozart's Eine kleine Nachtmusik is an example of a:

Correct answer is: a) serenade

Question: The themes employed in Haydn's rondo finales typically use what form?

Correct answer is: b) rounded binary

Question: Who did music historian Charles Burney call "the great sovereign of the tuneful art"?

Correct answer is: b) Joseph Haydn

Question: In 1790, Haydn was invited by Johann Peter Salomon to compose and conduct symphonies in what city?

Correct answer is: d) London

Question: Mozart was introduced to Johann Sebastian Bach's music in weekly reading sessions held at the home of:

Correct answer is: a) Baron Gottfried van Swieten

Question: Mozart's mature style, which immortalized his name, is typically associated with compositions written in:

Correct answer is: c) Vienna

Question: Haydn embraced a more popular style of composition in his symphonies beginning around:

Correct answer is: c) 1773

Question: Which of the following Mozart operas did not have a libretto by Lorenzo Da Ponte?

Correct answer is: d) Idomeneo

Question: Haydn wrote that what set of quartets were composed in a "quite new and special way"?

Correct answer is: b) Op. 33

Question: Which Mozart symphony is unique in that it combines sonata form and learned counterpoint in its final movement?

Correct answer is: c) Jupiter Symphony

Question: Haydn's last twelve symphonies were composed for performance in:

Correct answer is: d) London